RESPONSIBLE GOVERNMENT FOR PERSIA

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23.—Constitutional government for Persia, according to advice from Tehran received here is the outcome of a sudden exodus of thousands of merchants and Mullah priests from the Persian capital as a protest against the Shah's government. The insurgents proceeded to the village of Shah Abdul Azim, where the Shah was presiding over the representative assembly, elected by Mullahs, merchants and land owners and presented their case. The Shah assured them that their wishes would be granted.

CITY COUNCIL MAY BUILD STREET RAILWAY

Commissioners Now Figuring on a Three Mile Line—Kelsch Will be Employed as Telephone Expert

A slight surprise was sprung on the city council last night when the telegram was read from William Mackenzie stating that he would be in the city on Friday to meet the council here. The city council had asked Mr. Mackenzie to meet them in Winnipeg, and had not expected that he was coming to Edmonton in the immediate future.

The only business of more than ordinary importance transacted at last night's meeting was the retaining of R. S. Kelsch as consulting expert for the reconstruction of the telephone line. Mr. Kelsch's instructions are to go ahead and prepare a report on the relative merits of the automatic and manual telephone, after having done which the city will make another arrangement if they wish him to superintend the installation of the new plant.

The most important announcement that has been made in the city council for many months was that made by Mayor May last night that the city commissioners were figuring on the cost of three miles of electric street line to be built by the city this summer. The importance of this cannot be overestimated as it means that the city is to be supplied at once with a street car service, irrespective of any claims that may be held by the Ingalls people or any one else. Immediately after the reading of the minutes the mayor took advantage of the opportunity to congratulate Ald. Griesbach on his accession to the ranks of the benefactors, which congratulations were coincided in by the other members of the council.

Wallbridge & Macdonald write on behalf of R. Whiteman, stating that the certificates of contract work done by him are incorrect and asking that the council appoint a committee to look into the matter. The letter claimed that in some particulars the city was crediting him with too much and in other cases not enough.

Commissioner Hargreaves stated that the work had not been completed yet and consequently that there could be no final certificates of the work, as the work had not yet been finally accepted. The certificates were of progressive estimates on which the city usually pays 80 per cent. These, Mr. Hargreaves claims, were not necessarily always correct.

Mr. Whiteman produced the papers to show that on some Sixth street work he had been overpaid to the extent of $364. Mr. Hargreaves stated that the Sixth street work was merely a part of the whole contract, and the underestimate, if any such occurred, would be made right in the final acceptance of the work.

Ald. Mays and Griesbach were appointed a committee to look into the matter and report to the council.

A telegram was read from President Mackenzie, of the C. N. R. as follows:

Antikoen, January 22.
Chas. May,
Edmonton:

Expect to be in Edmonton on Friday. Can meet your council then.

WM. MACKENZIE
A letter from R. S. Kelsch was read as follows:

Montreal, January 17th.
Geo. J. Kinnaird,
Secretary City,
Edmonton:

Dear Sir—Your favor of the 11th inst. and will say that the writer is in a position to advise you re the matter of your telephone service.

There is very little telephone work done in Canada outside of the Bell Telephone Company, except some municipal plants, which have the old out of date system.

In order to make a careful investigation and give you an intelligent recommendation, the writer would be obliged to visit one or two of the automatic exchange systems to see for himself how they have overcome certain difficulties with which they have had to contend. This might take several days and necessitate my going to some of the nearby towns in the States, and the expense of such report would be anywhere from $150 to $200. If this is satisfactory, kindly let me know; in the meantime I will do what I can toward the matter, without leaving the city.

The writer was division superintendent of the Chicago Telephone Co. for ten years, having charge of an important district, covering 150 square miles, and is fully conversant with telephone matters.

Yours very truly,
R. S. KELSCH.

The commissioners were authorized to wire Mr. Kelsch at once, authorizing him to go ahead and get up his report at the expense mentioned.

A petition from the residents of the district north of Sutherland street, between that and Rat Creek, was read, protesting against having to send their children to the Norwood school. They claimed in their petition that their children were compelled to walk a long distance where there was no sidewalk, that the school was close to the nuisance ground, and to the slaughterhouse and that the children were forced to pass what are known to be houses of ill-fame.

W. A. Griesbach moved that the nuisance caused by the slaughter house be suppressed by law, that the sidewalk be extended as quickly as possible, and that the police commissioners be instructed to enforce the law with regard to the houses of ill-fame at once.

Ald. Picard pointed out that the nuisance ground, the slaughter house and the houses of prostitution had all been put in their present location to get outside of the city limits, but that now the city limits had been extended so as to take them in. He said that the slaughter house people had sunk considerable money on that undertaking, and that it was a very hard thing to ask the denizens of the restricted district to move at this time of year. He moved that action on the matter be deferred until spring.

A map was produced showing that the slaughter house was right opposite the Norwood school and Alderman Boyle said that if this was the case it was simply abominable and should be remedied at once.

Mr. Picard's amendment was lost and the original motion requiring the removal of all nuisances at once, was passed.

A letter from A. C. Neff in which he pointed out as reasons for tardiness of his report in coming to hand that it was inherently a very voluminous and intricate work which required a long time to get up and suggesting that the council, in order to get its annual report through, should accept whatever of his suggestions met with their favor and allow the annual statement to be gotten out along these lines.

The letter was laid on the table to be considered along with the auditor's report.

The fire and water committee, which was commissioned last meeting to look into the matter of a water-meter, burst by the front at Patterson's brick yard and charged to him, reported that Mr. Patterson was not responsible.

An estimate for furniture for the council chamber, prepared by the commissioners was put in. It called for a very elaborate outfit including upholstered, quarter-sawn white oak chairs, oak tables, reporter's desk, visitor's chairs, a railing and a carpet. The whole expense of refurbishing was stated as $272.50.

Ald. Griesbach moved, and Ald. Manson seconded, that the report be accepted, except that linoleum be substituted for carpet. The motion passed in this form.

Ald. Boyle, as chairman of the telephone committee, reported that they had interviewed the government, all the cabinet being present, and petitioned them to take over the Edmonton district telephone, that is, the telephone system now belonging to the city but operated outside of the city and in Strathcona.

Mr. Boyle reported that the Government wanted information as to the financial standing of these lines, so that they might be able to know whether they were paying or losing. With this idea he moved that the commissioners be instructed to prepare a report on the whole system for the information of the Government. The instructions were given accordingly.

Ald. Mays said that while looking into the telephone matter at Winnipeg it would be a wise idea to look into the fire alarm systems there, as this city will have to have an alarm system at an early date.

The mayor said that he had examined the system while he was in Winnipeg.

Austria and Serbia at Loggerheads—Seevva Makes Alliance with Balkan States

Vienna, Jan. 24.—A dispatch from Belgrade says that the Austro-Hungarian frontier has been closed against Serbian cattle. This marks an acute step in the quarrel between Austria on one side and Bulgaria and Serbia on the other as a result of secret negotiations between the Balkan states from a mutual union. In its late note on the subject the Serbian Government insolently declined to be guided by Austria-Hungary's suggestion. Negotiations between Austria and Serbia for the conclusion of a commercial treaty were officially broken off yesterday by Serbia's persistence in endeavoring to form a union with the other Balkan states.

THE PRINCIPAL EXONERATED

Serious charges against the principal of the Mackay avenue school, Mr. Scott, were investigated by the board of trustees yesterday afternoon. The charge, which was laid by Mrs. Mitchell, was that her boy, who is attending the school, and is a scholar in Miss Brille's room, had been brutally beaten about the hands and body by Principal Scott. The complaint reached the secretary of the board yesterday afternoon and a meeting was called at once to look into the matter. The members of the board present were Alex. Taylor, A. E. May, H. C. Taylor and Dr. Ferris. The boy's story was heard by the trustees and then the statements of Principal Scott, Miss Brille, in whose room the boy was at the time that the thrashing occurred, Miss Melroe, the former teacher, and Mr. Russell, the principal of the Mackay avenue school last year, were taken. Dr. Ferris, who had examined the boy, not professionally, but as a trustee, reported that in his opinion the boy was not injured seriously by thrashing he got, and on this and the evidence of the teachers as to the circumstances which led up to the thrashing, the trustees handed down a judgment completely exonerating Principal Scott.

THE BRITISH ELECTIONS

The British elections are not yet completed, but the returns now in assure the new Government a majority over Unionists, Nationalists, and Labor men combined. The Labor men moreover, appear to have been generally favorable to the administration and in several constituencies where Labor men ran no Liberal candidates were nominated. The turn-over constitutes one of the most remarkable land-slides in the history of British politics paralleling the famous reversion of public opinion which landed the Unionist Government in power.

The Balfour administration suffered long from general debility and the resignation of the late ministry came as a concession to the steadily rising feeling of public dissatisfaction. A large section of the public were dissatisfied with the conduct of the South African war and the subsequent administration of the newly-acquired territory, the Education Act alienated another large section of the electorate, while the general recognition that while Balfour was Premier, Chamberlain was master, lost to the Government the loyalty it might have received with a stronger, though less worthy man at its head.

But the prime issue of the campaign itself was the fiscal proposal of Mr. Chamberlain. This would have been the overshadowing question in any event and neither the Government nor the Unionists appear to have endeavored to avoid acknowledging its paramount importance. The lesson of the result must therefore be that the British public stands in unshaken allegiance to the policy of free trade.

The defeat of Mr. Balfour and the return of Mr. Chamberlain will probably afford the latter gentleman the opportunity to assume in name as he already has secured in fact, the leadership of the Unionists. It is doubtful however if without his protection policy Mr. Chamberlain could win and maintain the confidence of the British public as a party leader and it is certain that with the protection program he could not do so. More than this, Mr. Chamberlain is an old man, and in the natural course of life cannot have many more years in which to wage political battles.

GETTING BUSY

Our Opposition friends are on the ground early at Ottawa and have already installed the machinery for providing the doctrine pure and undiluted to the readers of the Opposition press during the coming session of the House of Commons. A trial run was made last week and the first of the season's output appeared simultaneously in several Conservative journals. The connections do not appear to be working smoothly, however and while the Winnipeg Telegram prints the story as a dispatch from Ottawa, the Toronto World, always scenting an opportunity to benefit the World at the expense of the party, appropriates the article, throws in some peppery language and reproduces the concoction as a kind of editorial hash whose origin is as obscure as its composition.

Briefly, the story is to the effect that Mr. Griffith, secretary of Lord Strathcona has opened letters of Mr. Preston, Immigration Commissioner, (which familiarity Mr. Preston is said to have resented to the extent of coming to Canada to see about it. Lord Strathcona also came to Canada, interviewed the Government, and intemperately re-embarked without informing the opposition of his business, wherefore said press connects his name with this letter opening episode and says he also came to see about it.

There are several suspicious features about this yarn which are worthy of note. No source of information is given or suggested and we are left to attribute the discovery of this heinous affair to the intuition of the writer where it probably originated. The improbability of two able-bodied men finding it necessary to cross the Atlantic to stop the inquisitive researches of a secretary does not appear to have occurred to the novelist. If Mr. Preston is as aggressive and as sensible as the writer would have us believe we fancy he would have found other and more immediately effective means of accomplishing this, while no one familiar with the mental and physical vigor of the High Commissioner will believe that a prying servant would not be promptly kicked down the back stairs. That the article was only published when Lord Strathcona and Mr. Preston were on the high seas and denied from them impossible lends nothing to the credit of the article, its author or its propagators.

Upon this flimsy surmise or vision or invention is based a column of general condemnation of the administration of the Immigration work in Great Britain and of the Minister of the Interior. The trouble we are assured has been gathering for two or three years; yet Lord Strathcona is not scored for failing to report sooner. The High Commissioner we are told is not under the control of the Minister of the Interior yet Mr. Oliver is condemned for not going to England to investigate matters which are under the control of the High Commissioner.

Probably the most amusing paragraph in the chapter is the following—

The placing of the emigration department under the control of the high commissioner nine months ago suggests either that the work was being inefficiently done, that with Mr. Oliver's advent to authority, immigration was being regarded as of less importance than formerly and should be more annex to the functions of a high commissioner who is a dominant figure in several gigantic private enterprises.

To those who have read and heard Mr. Oliver's denunciations of the former Government for starving the immigration service and who recall the assault made on the Minister of the Interior during last session, on account of the sums asked for in the estimates for for immigration work, the suggestion that Mr. Oliver underestimates the value and necessity of this branch of the public service is not without an unimaged humor.

The trouble seems to be that the Opposition are after Mr. Oliver's scalp on any and every occasion, which is about the highest testimony a political party can pay to the worth of an opponent.

MILITARY HONORS.

Halifax, Jan. 23.—On Monday H.M.S. Dorsetshire bearing the remains of Hon. R. Prentiss drew into port with a flag at half-mast. Officials and a large crowd of people early made their way to the dockyard to watch the procession. Upon the appearance of the coffin the heads of all on the deck were bowed, as upon the shoulders of sailors from the Canadian Government Cruiser Canada, it was borne down the steps of the landing. The route was lined by men from the Royal Canadian Regiment, Royal Canadian Artillery, Royal Artillery with 100 men of the Sixty Sixth Princess Louise Fusiliers. The casket was placed upon a platform surmounting a gun carriage the body wheels and tongue of which were draped with black and purple cloth.

FARMER'S MARKET

Wheat is a trifle lower today than last week, but otherwise the farmer's market is unchanged.

The Dowling Milling Co. quotes wheat at 53 cents for No. 1 northern, and 60 cents for No. 2.

As the city market oats are still quoted at 23 cents for feed and 25 cents for milling, barley is 25 cents for feed.

Cool remains unchanged at $3.50 a ton, and deliveries are large. Other deliveries are light today.

THE ANNUAL MEETING

Session Being Held at City Hall this Afternoon—A Satisfactory Financial Statement

The annual meeting of the directors of the Edmonton public hospital will be held in the council chamber of the city hall this afternoon at 3.30, to receive the annual report.

The report is out of the hands of the printers and is being issued to the public today. It is quite an extensive affair and shows a very satisfactory statement. It says in part:

"The past year has been in many respects a record-breaking year in the hospital. Notwithstanding a very considerable outlay in painting the buildings, erecting and furnishing a building for sleeping accommodation for the nurses, increasing the capacity of the hospital by connecting the main building to the second storey of the building to the south; establishing and equipping a school for the training of nurses; procuring a site for a new building at a cost of $1,500; and the payment of over $300 for interest, besides meeting the regular expenses from month to month, we are pleased to report that the outstanding indebtedness to the bank has been reduced to about $2,150, the amount now being $4,250.

"In the month of June Miss Caverhill, who for more than three years had been intimately connected with the hospital as Lady Superintendent resigned and her place was filled on August 1st, by the appointment of Miss Ida B. Bingham. The present staff consists of Miss Bingham, Lady Superintendent, and Miss Whyte and Hall, graduate nurses. These are assisted by four nurses in training, three of whom have had considerable experience in their chosen work.

"During the autumn and early winter the difficulty of finding trained nurses led to the establishment of a training school for nurses in connection with the hospital. Largely owing to the efforts of the Lady Superintendent the school was organized and equipped, and four probationers were in attendance at the end of the year. The medical men of the city have shown their good will and sympathy with this work by consenting to deliver courses of lectures to the nurses in training.

The sincere thanks of the board, as well as of all interested in the hospital are due to the ladies of the Woman's Hospital Aid Society for their untiring efforts during the year, and the magnificent results achieved, their donations amounted to no less a sum than $3,750, practically twice as great as in 1904, which was a record year up to that time. The prediction in the directors report of 1904, that the ladies would not slacken in their efforts, has been abundantly fulfilled.

"One of the very pleasing features of the year was the widening interest shown in the hospital by contributions received from schools and fraternal societies. Another cause for gratitude is the splendid feeling existing between the medical men of the city and the hospital.

"The marked growth of the city and country; the likelihood of a very extensive immigration during the coming summer, and the prospect of Edmonton becoming in the very near future a great railroad centre, together with the present demands, all emphasize the call for increased accommodation. It is practically impossible to make any further addition to the present building and even if it were possible, it would probably be, unwise to do so. Realizing these facts, the board has under contemplation the erection of a building on the new site, which when completed, will be a credit not only to the city, but to the whole country. With this end in view the board has appointed a committee on plans and specifications. The committee has already taken steps toward securing suitable plans. In order that the board may carry out its intention in this matter, it will be necessary that the citizens of Edmonton and the Edmonton district aid them with fitting liberality. The erection and maintenance of a first-class hospital in this city should appeal to their generosity, and all the more so as, up to the present time our city has not been equipped with the most modern side to alleviate human suffering. We therefore urge upon the people the necessity for watching the actions of the new board, and aiding them in every possible way in their efforts to secure the best equipment for this purpose.

"During the year just closed there were 307 patients treated in the hospital, of whom 201 were males and 106 females. The figures as to nationality show that there were 140 Canadians among these, 41 Americans, 35 English, 38 Scotch, 18 Germans and 10 Irish, the balance of the inmates being made up of a mixed lot of foreigners, of whom the Galicians were the most numerous, there being eight of them treated during the year.

The number of hospital days, on which basis the Government grant is given, shows that the last half of 1905 far surpassed all other six-month periods in the hospital's history. During this period the hospital earned 742 for having treated patients to the extent of 2,908 hospital days.

The total number of hospital days during the year was 4,914. There were 21 deaths, nine births and 110 operations during the year.

LOOKING FOR A PASS.

A Vancouver despatch says: A pass through the Rocky Mountains, the name of which has never been mentioned in the public press in connection with transcontinental railways, is now being surveyed by the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway.

A statement to this effect was secured today from Mr. Walter Moberly, who because of his intimate knowledge of the railway passes through the Rockies acquired through his civil engineering labors in the mountains which date back as far as 1858, is in the confidence of the Grand Trunk Pacific officials.

"Survey parties are now in the mountains searching for the most feasible pass," replied Mr. Moberly, in answer to a question.

"What passes are under consideration?" was asked.

"The Yellowhead, the Pine River—and another," said Mr. Moberly.

"What is the name of the other?"

"Well, its name has never been mentioned," replied Mr. Moberly, with a smile, "and the present is an inopportune time to say anything about it. The information will come out in good time."

"Mr. C. M. Hays has declared that no announcement as to the Pacific coast terminus will be made till the surveys in the mountains have been completed, and there is good reason for that as upon the determination of the pass to be used may, in great measure depend the selection of the terminus," continued Mr. Moberly. "I expect that Mr. F. W. Morse will come to the coast about May in connection with the commencement of work on the road from Kitimaat to Hazelton."

"The Grand Trunk Pacific will this summer start construction on the line from Kitimaat. This road will be built on the charter of the Pacific Oceanic & Northern Railway, which was purchased by the Grand Trunk directors. It will be much easier to establish preliminary coast connection by way of Kitimaat than from Kalen Island, as from the latter eastward there are many miles of very difficult work. One reason for the purchase of the Pacific Oceanic and Northern charter was that the Grand Trunk Pacific officials feared that the valley of the Skeena river at the canyon might be too narrow to accommodate two railways, and they therefore bought the charter."

"I warned the Grand Trunk Pacific against making a hurried selection of a pass through the Rockies, and explained that it would be a very costly thing to make the mistake the C.P.R. did in selecting a route involving heavy grades, the heaviest of which is over four per cent. My communication was heeded and officials came here to consult with me. The result was that no definite route through the mountains was selected and in order to avoid the error of the C. P. R. several passes through the mountains are being thoroughly examined."

PRINCIPAL PERRETT

Mr. T. E. Perrett, Saskatchewan, has been appointed principal of the Provincial Normal School to fill the vacancy in the position created by the selection of Mr. D. P. McCall, to be Deputy Minister of Education. Mr. Perrett has for over a year past been a member of the teaching staff of the Normal, prior to which time he was a school inspector at Edmonton. He has been a resident of the west for the past fifteen years, and has been generally regarded as one of the strong men in the educational life of this country.

The following sketch of the new principal is taken from the souvenir booklet issued by the normal school students last month at the close of the school term:

T. E. Perrett, one of our western pioneers, was born at Pembroke, Ont., where he received his public and high school training. He afterwards attended Victoria University, Toronto, from where he graduated in 1891. Soon afterwards he was appointed principal of Melville High public schools and came west. He continued here until 1896 when he was made inspector of public schools in Southern Alberta, and from that date till 1904 has inspected several of the inspectorates of the west. In 1904 he became a member of the teaching staff of Regina normal, taking the subjects of Mathematics and School Management, and has continued there since. Mr. Perrett is a tower of strength on the football field, and, but for him, many's the hard-fought battle would be in vain.

HAS A KICK

The Colon, Saskatchewan Enterprise says: All through Canada and doubtless throughout the world, wheat raised in Manitoba and Saskatchewan is known as Manitoba wheat and while we do not desire to take from Manitoba the credit due that province for the excellent grade of wheat its land produces, neither do we wish to see all the wheat grown in this province, labeled Manitoba. Saskatchewan is pre-eminently a wheat land and produces equally as good grade of wheat as her sister province, hence it is but right that our province should have the same recognition as Manitoba when it comes to the question of fame for its products.

the Ladies Hospital Aid society the following officers were elected for the ensuing year.—President, Mrs. Edminston, 1st Vice-Pres., Mrs. J. Sommerville, 2nd Vice., Mrs. John Ross, Secretary, Mrs. Dr. Ferris, Treasurer, Mrs. Dr. Nichols, Executive committee, Mrs. Fred Ross, Mrs. Robertson, Mrs. Brathwaite, Mrs. Butchart and Mrs. Seord.

—Only one quotation was received in the city today from the London fur sales, McDougall & Seord receiving a cable to the effect that red fox skins were bringing the same price as at the winter sales last year. The Mc-Millan agency here has received word that weasels were a trifle off and that mink are also lower than at this time last year, but their information is that the market generally is, as intimated yesterday, unexpectedly strong.

—McDougall Company No. 1, boys brigade, had their regular drill on Tuesday evening last as usual, there was a large turn-out of the boys. A choice program of reading and recitations was given by the members after which Captain Robertson gave them a half hour's military drill. The program for next meeting consists of piano solo, Gordon, Guild; recitation, Gordon Taylor; solo Ralph Huestis; recitation, Bert Layton. Physical exercise and drill completes the program.

—The Womens Literary Society of Edmonton, held their third regular meeting in the assembly hall of the Alberta College, Monday afternoon at four o'clock. The society is taking up Shakespeare's play, "As you like it,"
and on Monday the first act was read, several members taking part. At the next meeting the first act will be discussed, and the second act read. The society holds regular meetings on the second and fourth Mondays in the month and the meetings are always very interesting. Mrs. Sommerville is president of the society.

—The Ladies Aid of the First Presbyterian church held an enjoyable social yesterday afternoon and evening to welcome the newcomers in the congregation. The ladies were entertained in the afternoon from four to six, and in the evening from eight to ten. A large number of the gentlemen were present and a most pleasant evening spent.
A short program was rendered. Miss Carrie gave a selection on the piano.
Miss Webster sang one of her delightful solos and Miss McAmmond, of Allections were greatly appreciated. Refreshments were served during the evening, and also in the afternoon.

Indicative of the great interest that is being taken in Edmonton's big Bonspiel, the rink was visited yesterday by large numbers of citizens, and last evening the waiting rooms were crowded, a good many ladies being present.
Every courtesy is being shown by the committee in charge to the visitors.
The games so far have been of highly interesting character, even to those who understands but little of the science of the game.

Yesterday afternoon the McDougall cup games were continued, and also some of the draws in the Grand Challenge were played off. Last night the draw was made for the Smart Trophy and several games were played.
The ever-victorious Lloydminster rink skipped by Irvin, won in the draw for this trophy from Congdon of Strathcona. McDonald, of Edmonton, won from McDiarmid, from Poplar Lake, and Rae, of Edmonton, was victorious over Supple of Strathcona. Galbraith of Edmonton, also won from W. J.

and again won out.

against rinks from Edmonton, in the

ers' match.

On Rink No. 6, Red Deer, skipped by Stephenson, played W. G. Ibbotson's rink and the result was a tie, 8-8.

nisfail.

Herron.

for Fraser.

Congdon, vs. Studholme, score 16 to 6,
for Strathcona.

On rink No. 4, Saskatoon was playing McDonald, and at noon at the end of the sixth end, McDonald was ahead.
This afternoon the competition for the Gallagher Cup, visitors only, will be opened. Also Lacombe vs. Galbraith and Fort Saskatchewan vs. Rae will play off.

TARIFF INVESTIGATIONS NEAR- LY COMPLETED

Ottawa, Jan. 23.—The tariff commission will sit at Moncton on Friday, at Lunenburg the following day and will close its work in the Maritime provinces with a sitting at Halifax on Monday.

Three meetings will afterwards be held at Ottawa when among the interests to be heard will be the fruit growers of the Niagara district, rolling mills interests, Canadian consumers, agricultural implements, woolen millers, and hat manufacturers. The evidence taken at the different sittings of the commission is carefully summarized by the secretary and work on the schedules will begin as soon as the Ottawa meetings are over.

BILL TO REMEDY USURY

Ottawa, Jan. 24.—A bill will be brought in at the next session to deal

Some unsuccessful attempts have been made in the past to deal with this. The new bills will be on the lines of the Imperial act which gives from paying excessive charges to money lenders.
